to withdraw my amendment for General File, and if the bill makes it across, I will add it on Select. You guys are in a nasty mood. I wouldn't try.

PRESIDENT: You don't need consent. It is withdrawn.

CLERK: There are no further amendments, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Kremer.

SENATOR KREMER: Mr. Chairman, I would like to have the honor of moving this bill to E & R Initial.

PRESIDENT: All right. The question is, shall the bill be advanced from General File? Oh, excuse me.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: This is my final comment on this bill and it will be my final comment for the rest of this session unless a serious motion is made on Select File. Just remember this. I don't think the bill ought to be advanced but it is the individual riding the motorcycle who has ability or lacks ability who will be involved in or not involved in an accident. What the individual wears has nothing to do with it. So dress a fool as you will, a fool is a fool still. A helmet is not going to make a wise man of a fool.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall the bill be advanced? Record your vote. Have you voted? Record, Mr. Clerk. Senator...oh, Senator Burbach.

SENATOR BURBACH: We have got to have 2 more votes to advance this bill and I plead with you to advance it, and if you want to kill it on Final, that's all right. Let's move it along now.

PRESIDENT: All right. The question is, shall the House go under Call? Clear the Board. Record your vote on going under Call. Record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 7 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: All right. The House is under Call. Please take your chairs. Senator Simpson from nay to aye.

CLERK: Senator Simpson changing from nay to aye.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carsten voting aye. Rasmussen no...is he voting aye. Senator Duis no.

CLERK: Just a minute, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Burbach moves that the Call be raised. Record your vote on that.

CLERK: Senator Rasmussen was voting aye. Duis no.

PRESIDENT: Record and report the vote.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 1 nay to raise the Call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The Call is raised. Report the vote.
